

Sinclair Broadcasting is demonstrating the dangers of media
consolidation.
Their attempt to
derail the fairness
of the upcoming presidential election is threatening our ability to conduct a
demacracy.

Any company that
uses the public
airwaves should be
obligated to serve
the public interest
and not be allowed
to make rabid
political attacks in
a monopolistic
fashion.

We need to strengthen media
ownership rules to prevent this type of partisan abuse. The broadcasting license
renewal process
should discourage
this type of
arrogance by the likes of Sinclair as strongly as possible.

Respectfully,

Joseph Licastro II
